

Name: _____

Sign up for camps
and tournaments!

Developing Pieces

Playing good moves in the opening is like starting the day with a healthy breakfast. One of our goals in the opening is to develop our pieces (not pawns!) off of their starting squares so they can work with our team.

Directions:

Draw an arrow to a move white can make to develop a new piece.

Remember: the best developing moves also help us control the center or get our king castled quickly!

