Skewer

In chess we construct skewers by lining up one of our long range pieces (rook, bishop, or queen) with two of our opponent's pieces. When we skewer pieces, we attack a higher value piece in the front with a lower value piece behind it.

Directions:

Draw an arrow to white's move that skewers two black pieces